Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Recommendations of the Secretary of Agriculture, Hearings Before Secretary Walla ex. I did not charge my mind with specific Instance. Mr. McLaughlin. Mr. McLaughlin of Michigan. Have you In mind now some particular line In which you wish to extend or In which you have doubt as to your authority? Secretary Wallace. No; this bill was drafted not with the thought that ire would get authority to do anything that we were not already doing In a general way. Mr. McLaughlin of Michigan. Well, some things that you are now doing. Concerning which there Is doubt as to your authority? Secretary Wallace With the exception of the Bureau of Animal Industry and the Weather Service and possibly one or two others-the pure food act and possibly two or three others-I think most of the activities of the department would be subject to a narrow construction. Dr. Ball, who has been here longer than I have and has been through the appropriation hill experience, perhaps can give you. If you want more specific Instances of some caBea that have come under his actual observation. You see the aiqiroprlation bill was pawed last year before I came Into the department Mr. McLaughlin of Michigan, Well, the purpose of this Is to enlarge the authority of the Department of Agriculture? Secretary Wallace Not as we understand It; no. Mr. McLauoiuin of Michigan. If It Is not intended to do that and It is not necessary for that, what Is the necessity of It at all? Secretary Wallace. The purpose Is simply to write down In definite phrase the authority which we understand already exists under this original act....
