Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Key Route and the Carmen s Union: A Plain Statement of a Controversy Affected With a Vital Public Interest To the Public: The Board of Directors of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, appreciating the vital interest of the entire community in the outcome of the pending controversy between the Company and the Carmen s Union (Division No. 192, Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America), desires to lay before the public a full statement of the facts, together with all of the correspondence relating to the matter that has passed between the Company and the Union. In so doing, the Board of Directors has in view a double purpose: first, to avoid confusing the real issue with the inaccurate and misleading statements that have gained currency; and second, o fix the responsibility for any loss or inconvenience that may be suffered either by the public, the Company or the Carmen themselves. As the party most affected in the event the threatened strike occurs, the public is entitled to know the exact...
