In a second example, Schechter mentioned cases in which children of mothers who had recently fled an abusive relationship were themselves sexually abused during unsupervised visits with their fathers. She asked, Why. . . were we having such trouble explaining to the health care providers, the courts, the child protection system, and the guardian ad litem the central role that domestic violence perpetrators play in jeopardizing the emotional and physical safety of these children One outcome of concerns about children caught in such situations was the issuance of a challenge to the American Bar Association (ABA) by then ABA President, R. William Ide to prepare a report on domestic violence and its impact on children. (An overview of this report is presented as Appendix B.) Victims and the legal system. A major challenge for justice professionals, according to Judge Leonard Edwards (Santa Clara County, California, Superior...
