Shall the army of the Lord dismiss its veterans without adequate support? This is a work which the consistories should carry forward with zeal and generosity. THE OPENING OF OUR MITE BOXES. BY THE REV. J. A. BILLINGSLEY. It was with considerable uncertainty and trepidation that our Woman s Missionary and Aid Society came together for its first quarterly meeting, when the mite boxes were to be opened and the offerings counted. I could see in the faces of the mothers and the young girls the deep concern with fvch they awaited the gathering of the mite boxes, fearing lest the contents of their own box might not conform favorably with the others. But as the results became known, and the hour passed with singing, prayer, and the experience of the mite gatherers, there was an expression of surprise and joy in every face. Scarcely a member of our society can be said to be free from the hard struggle of earning daily bread, with barely enough to make ends meet from year to year. But it may prove an incentive to other churches to read some of the experience related in our Quarterly meeting last night at Manor Chapel. Each member told how she had gathered the contents of her mite box. The President said: I have been going without a...
