Doubleday, NY, 2005. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. 1st Edition. Stated first edition and the number line on the copyright page begins with 1. 178 page smallish hardcover, apparently Mr. Arvin's 1st novel. "George Tilson is an eighteen-year-old lowan farm boy who enlists in the army during World War II and is sent to Normandy shortly after D-Day. Nicknamed 'Heck' because of his reluctance to curse, he is a typical soldier, willing to do his duty without fuss or much musing about grand goals. It is during his first, horrific exposure to combat that Heck discovers a dark truth about himself: He is a coward. Shamed by his fears and tortured by the never-ending physical dangers around him, he struggles to survive, to live up to the ideal of the American fighting man. With remorseless, hypnotic clarity, Arvin draws readers into the unimaginable fear, violence, and chaos of the war zone. Arvin layers profound meaning within a brilliantly executed minimalist style. His portrayal of the emotional and physical terrors Heck can neither understand or escape is one of the most disturbing and unforgettable accounts of the life of a soldier ever written." New, unread copy: spine square and the book is perfect with NO markings throughout. The dj has a few TINY spots near lower corner of back else it's perfect, also, with no other flaws. NOT an ex-library, NOT a book club, NOT a remainder, dj NOT price-clipped (" $17.00"). New in New dj.
