It was no new book, drawn up by the religious leaders of the 16th century, but was mainly a reformed republication of those old Services, which had grown up through nearly a thousand years of English Christianity, being themselves developments of the Liturgies of an even remoter antiquity. So far it exemplified the famous Declaration (in the Act against suing for dispensations at Rome, a.d. 1538), that the English Church and nation in the Reformation intended not to decline or vary from the Congregation of Christ s Church, in things concerning the Catholic faith of Christendom, or declared by Holy Scripture and the Word of God necessary to...
