Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Philosophy of Mr. B*rr*nd R*ss*ll: With an Appendix of Leading Passages From Certain Other Works When Mr. Brtrnd Rssll, following the advice of Mr. Wllm Jms, again got into touch with reality and in July 1911 was torn to pieces by Anti-Suffragists, many of whom were political opponents of Mr. Rssll and held strong views on the Necessity of Protection of Trade and person, a manuscript which was almost ready for the press was fortunately saved from the flames on the occasion when a body of eager champions of the Sacredness of Personal Property burnt the late Mr. Rssll s house. This manuscript, together with some further fragments found in the late Mr. Rssll s own interleaved copy of his Prayer-Book of Free Man s Worship, which was fortunately rescued with a few of the great author s other belongings, was first given to the world in the Monist for October 1911 and January 1916, and has here been arranged and completed by some other hitherto undecipherable manuscripts. The title of the above-mentioned Prayer-Book, it may perhaps be mentioned, was apparently suggested to Mr. Rssll by that of the Essay on The Free Man s Worship in the Philosophical Essays (London, 1910, pp. 59-70) of Mr. Rssll s distinguished contemporary, Mr. Bertrand Russell, from whom much of Mr. Rssll s philosophy was derived. And, indeed, the influence of Mr. Russell extended even beyond philosophical views to arrangement and literary style.
