Excerpt: . without the Bishop s special license, and ordering them to remove all secular persons within the Monastery within a month from the receipt of the letter, and to let him know the number of nuns and how they have carried out his injunctions, before the Feast of St. Nicholas next, t.e., the 6th December. In 1363 he wrote in a similar strain, and very probably other letters had been sent in between, for in the latter year he complains that having heard, by public report, that they have not obeyed his former letter, he orders them to remove all women lodging there (perhendinatrices), whom they have received contrary to his letters, within fifteen days, and to receive no others without his special license. His successor, Bishop William of Wykeham, however, on 29th May, 1372, gave a special recommendation to receive a lady as...
