But this equality and liberty are not likely to be conceded unqualifiedly without further conflict. The pampered dog of the kennel is ill-content to let his free brother of the forest range the fields without chain and collar. Accordingly, the American Medical Association has proposed an appeal to the Legislatures of the several States, advocating that no more charters be granted to medical colleges which do not agree to adopt the plan of teaching which the Association shall hereafter demand. Perchance, if successful in grasping so much power, the next requirement would be to close up every institution now in existence, which will not conform to such a plan. It is always the first step which counts. Already, the worthy President of the National Public Health Association, has taken the initiative by a letter proposing the enforcing of a...
