JACKPOT

By Jayanti M Dalal

Authors Press, New Delhi, 2012. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. 245 pp. Meena begged Malay to quit his racing and drinking habits. It was ruining their marital relationship. The domestic quarrels that were once manageable for both of them to reconcile with each other were now beyond control. Meena's strong protests against his racing habits were tackled by him with the habitual answer, 'Let me win a big jackpot and I will stop going to the races completely.' 'Doesn't he understand that he will spend all his life by the time he wins a jackpot? He is obsessed with this vice to such an extent that he is beyond his senses now,' she used to mumble in despair. Meena's demand for money to run the household frequently resulted in ugly abuses and hitting. The domestic matters now became affairs for public discussion with the neighbours having a kick out of it. Often the quarrels took a different turn, more serious and more grim, with Malay taunting Meena of her affair with Manoj.
