Nearly the whole of the traffic of Ladak is transported on these sheep. They are food, clothing, and carriage, and form the principal wealth of the people of Ladak. I have seen a single flock of six hundred sheep, entirely laden with wool; and in one day I have counted as many as from five to six thousand sheep laden with shawl wool and common wool, borax and sulphur, and quantities of dried apricots, all making their way to the hill provinces on the south-west. The Huniya is, therefore, much prized; and a man s wealth is generally estimated by the number of his sheep. The average price is two rupees and a half (or five shillings), but fine strong rams are worth from three to four rupees. The whole trade of Ladak does not exceed 30,000 small maunds of sixteen...
